

OVERVIEW

Fall 2002

Asset Allocation (an overview)

Who and why:

(1) Individuals

- 1. Retirement
- 2. Major purchases (Home, Education)
- 3. Bequest
- 4. Smooth consumption

(2) Corporations

- 1. Active employee pension fund
- 2. Retired employee pension fund

(3) Financial Intermediaries

- 1. Banks
- 2. Insurance Companies
- 3. Savings and Loan

(4) Endowments

- 1. Charities
- 2. Trusts
- 3. Universities

Key Characteristics of Financial Intermediaries:

- (1) Leverage
- (2) Assets & liabilities are both financial instruments

Leverage example - typical insurance company balance sheet:

Assets: 41B

Liability: 40B

Net Worth: 1B

Types of Objectives

- 1. Maximize utility of multi-period consumption and final bequest.
- 2. Maximize utility in period 1 (maybe derived utility).
- 3. Maximize utility of terminal wealth.
- 4. Maximize utility of wealth at horizon subject to planned withdrawals.
- 5. Maximize probability of wealth greater than X at horizon.
- 6. Meet liabilities at minimum cost.
- 7. Maximize net worth.

Major Asset Classes:

- (1) Common Equity
- (2) Bonds
- (3) Real Estate
- (4) Commodity and Financial Futures
- (5) Domestic and International
- (6) Privately and publicly traded